Buffaloes Have Two More Home Games

Will Play Two Arizona Teams at Burton Gym Tonight and Friday

With 10 straight Border conference victories behind them, the West Texas State Buffs have games tonight and Friday night before making a road trip to end the season.

Arizona State of Tempe will play at Burton Gym tonight at 8:30 o'clock, and Arizona University will play here Friday night.

The Buffs handed defeats to Tech on Thursday night; Hardin-Simmons, Saturday night and Arizona State of Flagstaff, Tuesday night. All of the conference member teams have been whipped by the Buffs. Six more games remain on the schedule. Each team yet to be played hopes to be the lucky one to knock the Buffs out of their top place.

The closest game at Burton Gym this season was played Thursday night between the Buffs and Texas Tech of Lubbock. The gym was filled an hour before the game was called and several hundred fans were turned away for the lack of

Dahlia Party To Come Saturday

Various Old Time Stunts Will Be Pulled Off—Funds Go to Help Proving Grounds

"Ye olde dayes" will return Saturday evening, February 21, when a dance and stunt program is sponsored by the Southwestern Dahlia Society to raise funds for the trial grounds on the W. T. campus.

Students are being invited to join town folk in the fun. Coach Leslie Van Meter, he of the big words and abundant wit, will be master of ceremonies.

There will be dancing in the gymnasium of the Education Building from 8:30 to 9:30 p. m., a stunt program in the auditorium of that building from 9:30 to 10:30 p. m., and more dancing from 10:30 to 1 o'clock. Late permission will be given college co-eds.

As announced by Mrs. Mitchell Jones, the stunt program will include a family album skit by the Sue Hite Club, a melodrama by the Speech department, a solo by Mrs. L. F. Sheffy, a recitation by Bill Smith, a reading by Miss Novella Goodman, and a barber shop quartet by four Rotarians, Wesley Kleinschmidt, Guy Harp, Clyde W. Warwick, and Dr. D. A. Shirley.

At the dance, Mr. and Mrs. Art Querry of Amarillo will demonstrate a new Victory Dance they have originated.

Refreshments will be sold by girls of the college department of physical education for women.

Tickets will be sold for 25 cents each by members of the Amarillo and Canyon Garden clubs. Costumes may be worn to the oldtime program and dance if desired.

Selectees and Volunteers Are Leaving County

Randall county is being called upon to furnish many men to the armed forces under Selective Service. Defense regulations forbid the publishing of names of men excepting as they are ready for induction.

A group of men will leave this afternoon for Lubbock where they will be examined by army doctors tomorrow.

Another group of men will have their physical examinations on March 4. They are being given the "screening test" by local doctors this week.

Two men have been called for induction into the army on February 26. These men are:

William Quincy Boyce.
Weldon Bailey.

Men who have volunteered in other branches of the service are:

Earl Lee Cowart, Jr., navy.
James Douglas Breitling, navy.
Thomas A. Atkinson, army.
Wayne E. Byars, air corps.

T. M. McBroom Injured in Wreck

T. M. McBroom was bruised badly Friday morning when the '37 Oldsmobile which he was driving turned over twice, pinning him under the machine. The accident was caused by a blowout.

McBroom was returning from Brownwood where he had gone for the car of his son, Oren A. McBroom, who has been stationed there with Company F, 142nd Infantry, but who is being transferred to Florida. The accident occurred about 25 miles this side of Brownwood.

Mr. McBroom came on to Canyon by bus, but was unable to return to his work for a few days.

The car was completely wrecked.

Two Men Hurt In Train Accident

The fireman and brakeman on the freight were hurt Saturday in a crash near Canyon when one freight train hit another one. There was such a heavy fog that the engineer could not see a train ahead of him. He called for the two men to jump and both were injured along the tracks.

The men were taken to the hospital in Amarillo by the Griggs-Thompson Ambulance.

PLAINVIEW VISITORS

A. B. Tarwater and J. W. Jennings of Plainview were here Tuesday, visiting with friends for a short time.

Mr. Tarwater was State Representative for 10 years. Mr. Jennings was former County Agent of Randall county.

More Women to Knit, Needles Needed Red Cross

All knitters are urged to check yarn from the Red Cross Sewing Room and make garments to be used by the armed forces. Mrs. Bessie Melton, who is in charge of the project here, stated that yarn is being received constantly and that the Red Cross is in need of more knitted garments.

Number 5 and number 6 knitting needles are in demand. Those who have such needles and are not using them are asked to lend or donate them to the Red Cross. There is also a scarcity of sock needles.

Red Cross headquarters have reported that not half enough knitted garments have been turned in to meet the necessity.

Starting Monday knitting classes will be conducted six afternoons a week from 3 until 6 o'clock at the sewing room for everyone who wishes to work with the Red Cross. Those who need any help in their knitting are invited to attend, and instruction will also be given beginners.

Mrs. Robert Jarrett, Jr., Mrs. R. D. Oldham, and Miss Johnie Courtney will teach one afternoon a week. Mrs. George Melton and Mrs. James Cole will be in charge on the other three days. Mrs. Ed Phillips and Mrs. Bonnie Brown will be assisting with other work in the sewing room.

Rural Electric Line Serving Farmers South

Lynn S. Scott, manager of the Swisher County Electric Cooperative, was in Canyon Monday on business.

He states that 184 miles of rural electrification lines are now in operation in Swisher and Randall Counties. Allotment has been made for 200 miles more. When complete, there will be about 100 miles of rural lines in Randall county. The line will come within a few miles of Canyon on the Southeast. More than 125 families will be served in this county.

Power is being furnished by the Texas-New Mexico Utilities Co., with connections at Tulia.

Approval has been given to an extension of the Deaf Smith County Electric Cooperative to come within a few miles of Canyon on the west but work has not started on this line.

C. K. Crawford Died Sunday at Olney

C. K. Crawford, 83, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. W. Paschall at Olney late Sunday night following an illness of three weeks. Funeral services were performed Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Methodist Church of Olney.

Mr. Crawford lived here last summer with his daughter, Mrs. R. E. Ball, but he had made his home in Wichita Falls for the past two years. Mrs. Ball went to the bedside of her father early last week.

Survivors are a son, H. V. Crawford of Graham; five daughters, Mrs. T. M. Stith of Tulia, Mrs. C. H. Poff of Happy, Mrs. Ball of Canyon, Mrs. R. W. Paschall of Olney, and Mrs. C. W. Cheves of Wichita Falls; and a brother and sister of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Thompson spent Sunday in Tulia visiting her mother.

Court of Honor For Boy Scouts

Counselors Are Wanted to Aid Boys in Winning Merit Badges in Scout Work

The Boy Scout Court of Honor will be held at the Methodist Church in Fellowship hall on Thursday of next week, Feb. 26.

On Wednesday evening, preceding, the Scouters Round Table will be held at the City Hall for all Scout masters, assistants and troop committeemen. This will be under the direction of J. W. Kleinschmidt as commissioner and Milton Morris as chairman of training.

Merit Badge Counselors are needed among the men of Canyon for the Boy Scouts. The Rotary and Lions Clubs are sponsoring troops and 30 to 40 men are needed to volunteer to council the boys and assist them in passing their tests.

Dr. A. M. Meyer requests that men volunteer to assist the boys in their work. They should telephone Dr. Meyer, or drop him a card. Merit Badge pamphlets on all subjects are to be found in the county library.

The following subjects are open for counselors:

Agriculture; Animal Industry; Archery; Athletics; Automobiling; Beef Production; Bird Study; Bookbinding; Bugling; Business; Camping; Carpentry; Chemistry; Civics; Conservation; Cooking; Cycling; Electricity; First Aid; First Aid to Animals; Gardening; Pork Production; Journalism; Life Saving; Mechanical Drawing; Music; Personal; Photography; Physical Development; Pioneering; Public Health; Radio; Reading; Safety; Scholarship; Signaling; Stamp Collecting; Swimming; Wood Carving; Wood Work.

Meeting Farmers Is Being Held at Court House

The series of farmers' educational meetings on the 1942 Farm Program and the Food for Freedom campaign closed last week. Meetings were held in all of the nine organized communities by County Agent W. H. Upchurch, and were sponsored by the Farm Bureau Association in each community.

There was good attendance at all the meetings and the very best spirit of co-operation and interest was manifest. It is quite evident that Randall county farmers appreciate the nature of the National emergency and will do their part in the food production program.

Farmers from all communities say present prospects indicate that food production pledges will be met in all important items with the possible exception of milk. Some other foods, notably eggs and pork, will be produced in sufficient volume to more than offset the shortage in milk. Most producers estimate that milk production will improve later in the season.

The USDA War Board has called a conference for this (Thursday) afternoon with various agency representatives including vocational teachers, home economic teachers and others meeting with the agricultural program committeemen and members of the County Land Use Planning Committee for the purpose of studying ways and means to carry on.

At this conference the figures for Randall county production will be reviewed and progress noted for the principle lines of the war effort. "Where do we go from here" will be the general theme of the committee conference today.

Democrats Ask $100 From This County at Once

Contributions to the National Democratic Campaign Fund are urged from local citizens. Randall county has been assessed $100 to pay off the Democratic deficit. The money should be paid in this week so that Texas may report to the National Committee at once.

Several Democrats have made contributions to the fund. Those who will make contributions are urged to hand their checks to Clyde Warwick before Saturday night.

Cold Wave Hits Plains Tuesday

Temperature Is Driven Down to Near Zero; Little Rain Adds .20 Inch Moisture

A cold wave hit Canyon Tuesday afternoon, driving the mercury down to zero. At the West Texas Gas office the lowest registered was 4 degrees above zero. At the depot, where the thermometer is hanging on a pole facing north, the temperature dropped to below zero.

The temperature mounted steadily yesterday after the cold blast.

This was the second cold wave in 1942. The temperature dropped to 3 degrees below early in January.

Fog and mist covered the county Friday and Saturday. Moisture amounted to .20 of an inch.

Co. F Moved to Florida Report From Brownwood

Company F, 142nd Infantry, along with other members of the 36th Division, left Camp Bowie early Monday morning for Camp Blanding, Florida, where they will receive more military training.

Captain W. E. Lockhart, formerly of Canyon and former commanding officer of Company F, stated that the Florida National Guard is being moved to Camp Bowie. The move was made in order to eliminate so many accidents near the army camps. There have been many injuries and a number of deaths near the camps because many men go home each week end, being stationed so close to their home towns.

Company F was made up completely of Canyon men on November 25, 1940, when the National Guard was inducted into active military service. The men have been in training in Camp Bowie more than a year and have received recognition from military authorities.

Address of the men is "Pvt. ———, Co. F, 142nd Inf., Camp Blanding, Florida."

According to a letter from Capt. Lockhart to his wife, this week, Lt. and Mrs. Vincent M. Lockhart left Sunday for Camp Blanding. Lt. Lockhart is with the Headquarters Company of the 36th Division. Capt. Lockhart was in Camp Bowie attending the farewell banquet for the men going to Florida.

Military Force Gets Recruits

Men 20 to 44 Years of Age Registered Monday; To Get Questionnaires In Few Weeks

Randall county added 444 potential soldiers in the registration Monday.

There was a total registration of 448 men. Of this number 24 cards were sent to other counties; while 20 cards have so far been received back by the local board. It is likely that other cards will be received before the end of the week from men who registered at distant places.

Time will be allowed for all cards to be transferred in before serial numbers will be given the men who registered Monday. Sometime during March another lottery will be held in Washington for the purpose of drawing order numbers for the new registrants. After all men have been given order numbers, questionnaires will be mailed to the men and then they will be placed in line for military service. It will probably be about two months before it will be possible to send out these questionnaires.

In the meanwhile local boards are continuing with the examination of men on the old rolls for the purpose of determining men who are available for military service. Married men whose wives have incomes are being placed in line for military service.

Physical standards are being lowered, especially in regard to teeth, so that some men who have been rejected in the past may be recalled into service. Selective Service officials in Washington have found that men with enough teeth to eat well as civilians can eat well as soldiers.

Registration was carried on by 25 volunteers. Members of the local board expressed great satisfaction for the splendid manner in which the registration was handled. The job could not have been handled without the faithful co-operation which was given by those donating their time for this work.

Light Bulbs Are Needed To Build Up Brass Supply

Old light bulbs are needed by the government. A small amount of brass is used in the manufacture of bulbs and this brass can be salvaged.

There is not enough brass in a light bulb to pay individuals to save their old bulbs, but when a town or city saves these bulbs and turns them back to the government, a small amount of money will be made in the deal.

Boxes to receive old light bulbs will be placed in front of the City Hall and the Red Cross sewing room where citizens may deposit their old burned out bulbs. When there is a sufficient number in these boxes the bulbs will be turned over to some agency and whatever money is received for the old brass will be given to the Red Cross.

The government requests all citizens to co-operate in this matter.

Scrap iron is in great demand, and plans are being made for some one person to have charge of gathering scrap iron in this section.

Pierce Has Collection of 823 Tobacco Sacks

Judge Pierce is among the unusual collectors. He doesn't go in for antiques or for miniatures, but for tobacco sacks.

About two and a half years ago he started putting his empty tobacco sacks on a wire in the service station at the Hawks Motor Company where he is a co-owner. Now there are 823 sacks on the hook, which is about three feet high. Most of the contents have been smoked by Judge himself.

Judge started collecting them just to see how long it would take to fill the hook. Use of the sacks has not been decided. But Judge may have a head start on other Canyonites, who are being called upon to collect just as insignificant items, such as light bulbs, old papers, and tin foil.

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Randall county will contribute an unusual soldier to Uncle Sam's fighting force on Feb. 20. This man is a well known lawyer, living in the north part of the county, South Amarillo. He has a fine law practice and enjoys a wide association of friends. He has a fine family. He was over the registration age in 1940 but three weeks ago demanded to register with the Randall County Selective Service Board. He wanted to take his physical examination at once and go with the first batch of men to the army physical examiners at Lubbock. Having no calls before Feb. 20, this lawyer was transferred to the Amarillo board and was examined in Lubbock last week. The Randall county board has a call for two men to be inducted in service on Feb. 26. This lawyer asked to be sent as one of these men. All who know this lawyer feel that Uncle Sam is getting a very fine soldier and a man who will serve his country well. Such patriotism and willingness for service clearly illustrates the greatness of America, and the reason that we shall win the war, regardless of present defeats.

Native Texans should be ashamed of themselves. They gripe continually about the weather. According to Prof. Archie MacAlpin the Panhandle has the grandest weather he has ever enjoyed—and yet the natives out here are always predicting dire results of every cloudless day, and a sandstorm to follow every bright sunny spring day. Mr. MacAlpin came to West Texas State last fall and says this is the finest climate he has ever experienced. Stop to think about it, we sure do raise heck about the weather, and are always calling attention to the bad days last year or the year before, or 20 years ago. The professor says this weather is fine—so let's begin to brag about the good days and forget the dust storms and other disagreeable days of the past. From now on we live in the country with the greatest climate on earth!

Word from Austin indicates that Federal Judge James V. Allred is certain to enter the race for United States senator against O'Daniel. It is said that Allred is willing to risk his future security and a lifetime job in order to get back into politics. He wants to be sure that Washington will approve of his candidacy, but at the same time he is not willing to run as a rubber stamp candidate. Allred is a powerful campaigner. He knows Texas and Texas people. He loves a political scrap and knows how to put on the pressure. O'Daniel has been very unpopular in Washington and is shunned like so much poison ivy. He made the mistake of talking too much before and after reaching Washington. Maybe a red hot race for the Senate would add to the merriment of a campaign which has all indications of being rather drab in other races.

The Republicans are trying to put life into their congressional campaign this fall by promising that General MacArthur will be their candidate for President in 1944. The Republicans have charged that the defense program lagged because of the administration's political handling of affairs in Washington. Yet they are seeking to capitalize on General MacArthur's reputation while he and his little band of soldiers are fighting for their lives to hold a small piece of our territory. Wonder what MacArthur and his men would think about this gang of Republicans who are trying to capitalize upon their valiant stand? If MacArthur could get out of the Philippines, the chances are small that he would quit his men while they are so sorely pressed. Let's win the war and then talk politics.

Congressmen as well as civilians are doing a lot of talking about government economy and spending the money on defense measures. The President has notified the lawmakers to point the way by naming agencies which should be abolished. Okay, Mr. President, we will lead off: Fire 90% of the press agencies which are living off the government and wasting millions of sheets of paper and millions of envelopes daily by sending out unnecessary press releases. Besides the savings of these salaries and saving this paper the government will reduce the postal deficit and save the backs of thousands of office boys who have to empty the waste paper baskets of every newspaper office.

Will the English people accept the words of Churchill that progress is being made in the war in spite of the disasters of the past week? No doubt they still believe in Churchill, but they are very skeptical of some of the cabinet members who are not going all-out for the war. The people of the United States believe in Roosevelt, but are likewise skeptical of many of the underlings who are messing up the program of defense. The war business has reached a most critical stage. If the English speaking peoples are to win, we must have an all-out program. There can be no more halfway measures in either England or America.

Are battleships as vulnerable as we have been led to believe? England has raided the German fleet more than a hundred times, dropping tons of explosives on the big ships. Yet the ships were able to steam out of harbor and pass within a few miles of the English shores. Direct hits from the air have sunk a number of big ships for both the Allies and the Axis. It seems almost incredible that these ships could have escaped serious injury in all of the raids which have been made on them during the past months. But they did escape, and within a few weeks or months will be preying on British shipping.

Let Americans not be too hasty in jumping onto England and Churchill for the loss of Singapore and the escape of the German fleet. Remember Pearl Harbor, Manila, Guam, Wake Island? We suffered great losses because the United States did not take the war seriously, and did not prepare for war as soon as Hitler started moving. Furthermore, we should have known years ago that Hitler was preparing for war. The Democracies as a whole are equally to blame for not being ready to stop the aggressors.

Japan claims she must have territory to take care of her population. Yet she is urging the increase of her population to 100 million by 1960. She follows the lead of Germany and Italy in offering a bonus to every large family. Severe penalties are imposed upon small families and upon single persons. She is reckless with the lives of her soldiers because she figures on the families at home raising more boys for cannon fodder.

Less sugar is not going to hurt anyone. As a matter of fact most folks use more sugar than is good for them. Any time you see a person pour two or three spoonsful of sugar into a cup of coffee or tea you may rest assured that full half of the sugar is unnecessary and is being wasted. Just as well become accustomed to less sugar now, and then it will not be so hard a little later when the ration is again reduced.

Americans are now shocked into the realization that we could lose the war—but while admitting this fact, millions of citizens are determined that we shall not lose the war. The man power of the nation is firmly convinced that the Axis powers must be whipped before there can be permanent peace for this nation. National security is worth fighting for, and if necessary is worth dying for.

EDI

The question is Bonds or Bondage. If you are unwilling to put up the money with which to buy guns, tanks and ammunition, and enough other folks are equally as unpatriotic, then this war will be lost and bondage will be the lot of all. Fortunately a vast majority of Americans believe in America and are willing to protect our nation.

The News has been very hopeful that the war might be won in 1942. The events of the past week now convince us that we shall be lucky to win in 1943. The escape of the German fleet, right under the British nose, and the fall of Singapore mean that the war will go on much longer than we had hoped for.

The President has ordered governmental agencies to release as many employes as possible to war work. Increasing work day to 44 and 48 hours per week will help some. But in the meanwhile farmers and small business men put in 54 to 60 hours regularly and think nothing about it. Maybe it would be a good idea to really put some of our government agencies to work.

There are 400 million Chinese waiting for arms with which to fight the Japs. Up to the present time the United States and England have not furnished many of these arms. From now on arms will be shipped regularly, but it will be harder and more expensive to deliver these supplies to China.

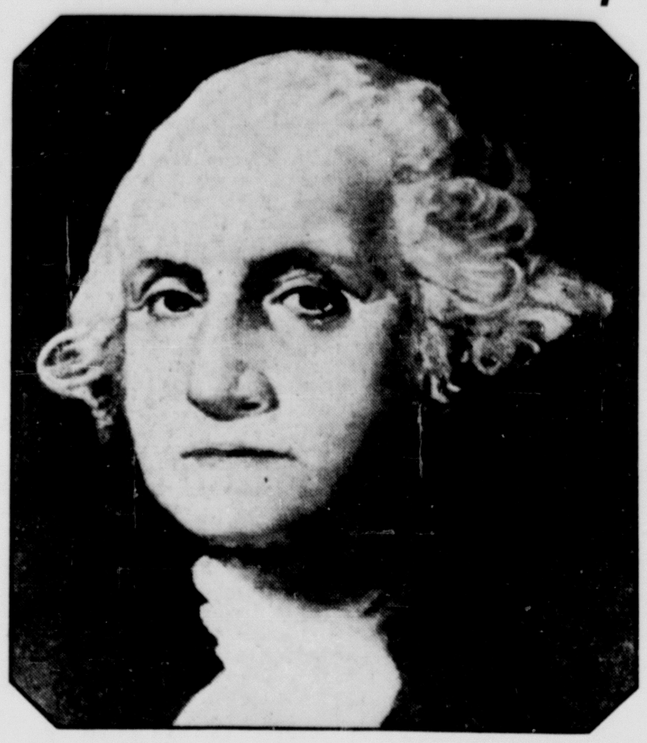
Wisdom of Washington Serves As Guide to Patriotism Today



Excerpts from counsel offered by George Washington to the nation as a young republic, are remarkably appropriate to the world we live in.

BY RALPH HERBERT

"IT is incumbent upon every person of every description to contribute to his country's welfare."

Thus simply did George Washington pen immortal lines which are as true now as they were in the days when he was at the helm of our ship of state.

"Let us impart all the blessings we possess, or ask for ourselves, to the whole family of mankind," Washington said, in prophetic forecast of President Roosevelt's "Four Freedoms."

"The name America must always exalt the just pride of patriotism," the Father of Our Country said, foreseeing, perhaps, just such a time as that in which we live.

Washington may not have had a fifth column with which to contend, but his words of warning are worth remembering: "Every attempt to alienate any portion of our country from the rest should be indignantly frowned upon."

In phrases that sound as though they were taken from a "Remember Pearl Harbor" speech, Washington proclaimed that "the propitious smiles of heaven can never be expected on a nation that disregards the eternal rules of order and right, which heaven itself has ordained."

HAVING won his important victories, Washington urged a just peace for the post-war period. "My brave fellows," he said, "let no sensation of satisfaction for the triumphs you have gained induce you to insult your enemy. Let no shouting, no clamorous huzzaing increase their mortification. It is sufficient for us that we witness their humiliation. Posterity will huzza for us."

Washington's answer to critics is as timely today as it was during his career as the nation's first President. "If there was the same propensity in mankind for investigating the motives, as there is for censuring the conduct, of public characters, it would be found that the censure so freely bestowed is oftentimes unmerited and uncharitable," was his opinion.

No wonder Americans have immortalized George Washington as first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of his countrymen. No wonder George Washington's birthday has greater meaning for us now than ever before.

"Excuse me," said the mild little man in the crowded cafeteria, who had returned from getting a cup of coffee, "but you have my seat."

"Oh, yeah," growled the big man. "Can you prove it?"

"Certainly," was the reply.

"How?"

"By the seat of your pants. You are sitting on my pipe."

Judge: "This is a sad case. You who remained honest until you were 40, have tarnished your name and dishonored your family all for the sake of 100 miserable dollars. Have you any thing to say for yourself?"

Defendant: "Yes, your honor. Was it my fault that it was so few?"

Sally: "What's your idea of a simple wedding?"

Joan: "One that costs only twice as much as the family can afford."

Maintain the Right!—Whittier.

World War I Sweater Given Red Cross

A Canyon woman turned over to the Red Cross this week a skeater and muffler, which she was knitting at the close of World War I. The garments were not completed when the Armistice was signed, so she did not turn them in.

Although they are 24 years old, the sweater and muffler are in perfect condition and are now on display in the window at the Red Cross sewing room on the west side of the square.

These garments were knitted of 8 or 10 thread with wooden needles using the jiffy stitch. Red Cross sweaters today are knit of 4 ply thread, using the stockinet stitch.

Upchurch Discusses New Crops Tuesday at Rotary Lunch

New crops in the United States were discussed Tuesday at the Rotary Club luncheon by County Agent W. H. Upchurch. The migration of crops fits into the needs and plans of mankind. Mr. Upchurch used many crops to illustrate how the economic conditions have changed the continent on which they are now raised.

Rubber, which may determine the rise and downfall of nations, originated in South America. It was transplanted to the Dutch East Indies. The United States bought rubber there because the Dutch could raise it a little cheaper. 600,000 tons have been imported annually. 15 million rubber trees have been transplanted in South America, but the industry is still in the experimental stage.

The demand for variety in diet has brought about the importation of many crops and the improvement of the native crops. Economic conditions have always determined their future.

We could raise all of the sugar we need in this country, but economics and good neighbor policy dictates that we buy from Cuba and other countries.

We can raise all the rice we need. But Japan raises a variety of rice which polishes. The Japs would not think of wasting valuable food properties by polishing rice, but Americans must have polished rice because it looks better—and thereby we have developed a Japanese industry.

Mr. Upchurch mentioned a score of crops which have been imported and adapted to the needs of American farmers. The farmers do not have the time and money to develop new crops, so experiments are carried on in Experiment Stations.

John Stovall was a guest of the club.

A. M. Meyer announced that merit badges would be given a number of Boy Scouts and asked members of the Rotary Club to become counselors to the boys.

Rotarian Chester Pierle has made several talks on China to neighboring Rotary Clubs during the past week. This subject was observed by all Rotary Clubs.

The program for the Dahlia Society entertainment Saturday night at the Education Building was announced.

at a telephone job that is vital

Telephone construction crews everywhere have been breaking records month after month.

Within the space of a year, Southwestern Bell crews completed extensive telephone systems at scores of military or military supply locations in Texas, Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, and Oklahoma, finishing each job on time . . . or ahead of time.

In some exchanges where the inrush of workers in armament plants created an extraordinary demand, these crews have helped as well to double the number of telephones in service.

All told, 30,000 Bell Telephone folks in the Southwest march ahead these days, doing their best with such materials as are available to give you . . . and the nation . . . all the telephone service possible in time of war.

Grade Students Vary Activities

"Be prepared" is the motto of the Canyon Grade School as well as Boy Scout Troops, because air raid drills are being practiced weekly by pupils and teachers in the grades.

At the sound of nine short gongs on the fire bell, the pupils pass in single file into the halls; and when each group gets to its respective station the boys and girls stand quietly until signals are given to sit down and talk or sing.

Each room has selected a captain who has the responsibility of opening the door and leading the group to its respective place. A monitor for each room has been selected, and his responsibility is to close all windows and report to the captain when the room is cleared.

First Graders Fill Neighbor's Chest Helping America's Neighbor Policies

In an effort to help in the "Good Neighbor" program and mostly because they just couldn't learn to knit, Mrs. M. S. Bishir's first graders decided to befriend a small Mexican boy and girl and help them by filling a chest with good but out-grown clothes, sharing toys and sending valentines. Boots, socks, jackets, shirts, trousers, caps, underwear, which were no longer big enough for six-year-old boys, were washed and ironed and polished for four-year-old Tigurcio.

Three-year-old Margareta received many little dresses, sun suits, sweaters, shoes and socks, which were still good but too small for first grade girls. Valentines and refreshments from their own valentine party, besides dolls, balls, trucks, airplanes and other toys were shared with the two proteges.

As the chest was filling up, a Mexican woman in need of a layette was discovered; and this problem was added to the project.

A pink-lined box was prepared to receive slightly used baby dresses, slips, nighties, sacs, shirts, bootees and stockings—parts of the first graders' own layettes. When Doris Ann Jennings and Donnie Hicks won the $1 in the amateur contest in January, they donated the amount to buy several new items for the nursery chest.

Victory Club Is Red Cross Aid

Heroes' Lives Predominate Plays Given by Students

Something different in elementary news is the organization of the Victory Junior Red Cross Club by the sixth grade.

H. W. Truitt, sponsor, explained. "The club holds regular meetings every Monday with Kenneth Beck presiding and Kathryn Hancock acting as secretary.

"The club has pledged itself for the work of the Red Cross for the year," he added. The following work is included as its objectives for this year: To collect 200 crossword puzzles (this goal has already been attained), to make 2,000 place cards, 500 score pads (ten have been completed), to make five cartoon books, to construct 50 games and collect 27 books.

"A complete report is written and kept for future reference by the secretary at the close of each meeting," concluded Mr. Truitt.

Club programs given since its organization, January 6, have been about the lives of national heroes. These were presented by the program committee, James Bible, Marvin Fite and Betty Jane Hales.

Band Plays Anthem; Pupils Rise to Feet

Mrs. Stella Murrell is beginning to get worried because every time she begins a reading class, the Canyon High School band breaks out with "The Star Spangled Banner"; and being very patriotic pupils, her entire class jumps to their feet.

Pupils Construct Own Valentines

Centering their work around Lincoln's birthday and St. Valentine's day last week, Mrs. R. E. Harter's third grade studied a unit on Lincoln's life and made valentines.

The pupils were directed to make their valentines instead of buying them in order to help the defense program.

By combining scraps of paper from Lincoln cut-outs with red construction paper and paper doilies, the pupils cut and made valentines. Original rhymes added variety and a finishing touch to the valentines. Completing this unit, the boys and girls observed St. Valentine's day by having a valentine box, Friday.

Students Display Defense Work

Fourteen Students Invest Savings in War Bonds

Valentines, Red Cross work and Defense Stamp sales made up the activities of the Canyon Grade School last week.

During the week, each class was occupied in making and decorating a valentine box. Friday afternoon, each class celebrated in its room with a party which included a program, refreshments and having a valentine box.

Red Cross Projects Are on Display

Junior Red Cross projects, on which each class has been working to complete a 100 per cent record, were on display in the library of the grade school building last Thursday. Among articles on display were woven afghan blocks of all colors, designed book markers, novel story books, a complete wardrobe for a Mexican baby, hot water bottle covers and crossword puzzle booklets. These completed articles will be given to the Red Cross and from there distributed to the Veterans' Hospital in Amarillo and other government posts.

Valentines Decrease Stamp Sales

Although the sale of Defense Stamps decreased last week because of purchases of valentines and Red Cross material, the figures of the amount bought by the percentage of the 318 pupils enrolled show that the grade school is doing more than its part for defense.

Mrs. Stella Murrell's second grade leads the 60 per cent record for the school enrollment with 82 per cent of the class making purchases while 6-A runs a close race with 81 per cent. The total amount invested by the school scores $1,129.30 including $731.25 in bonds that have been bought.

Pupils Hold Big Bonds

Betty Jane Morris in Mrs. M. S. Bishir's first grade holds the largest bond counting $243.75 while June Jennings, fifth grade, and Janie Jennings, second grade, possess a $168.75 bond.

Other bond holders are Betty Jean Schuette, fifth grade; Albert Craig, Bruce Winn, Donna Erwin, Fred Begert, fourth grade; Don Paul Johnson, James Cundiff, second grade; Elaine Cundiff, first grade; Valeta Haines, Fannie Alice Pierce and Frances Stanley, sixth grade.

Hinders Presides at Second Grade's Defense Worker's Meeting Monday

Presiding over the Uncle Sam's Defense Worker's Club, the Red Cross organization in Mrs. Roscoe Davis' second grade, Raymond Hinders called the meeting to order Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. After hearing the minutes read by Dwain Currie, secretary, Nelda Ruthardt and Ara Beth Prichard led the group in singing "America," "The Star Spangled Banner" and "God Bless America."

Begert Reports Progress

Hila Fae Begert, chairman of the Weaving Committee, reported that 10 blocks had been woven toward the goal of 88 squares. Nelda Ruthardt, chairman of the Crocheting Committee, reported that 23 crocheted blocks had been completed; and for an afghan there would have to be 96 blocks.

Hot Water Bag Completed

That one hot water bag had been completed and that about three-fourths of the print lap-spread had been finished were the main thoughts in the report made by Annette Rusk, chairman of the Sewing Committee.

John Ross Hall, chairman of the Crossword Puzzle Committee, stated that a number of puzzles had been collected and that they would be mounted and made into a booklet.

Donations Increasing

Jean Fowler reported on the donations to the defense fund. She stated that the total fund of 34 cents had been donated by class members who earned their money by doing odd jobs for their parents.

"The attitudes and response of the children to this type of work is surprising and encouraging," commented Mrs. Davis.

Fifth and sixth grade boys and girls, although interested in other games, seem to prefer volley ball, basketball and football. The girls vie for positions on the volley ball team which meets in the gymnasium. On the playground, baseball predominates. Tumbling, in addition to basketball and football, furnishes exercise for the growing men of the fifth and sixth grades.

Do You Know . . .

What services are furnished the community by your Elementary School?

That our enrollment is 319?

That we have a splendid faculty?

That our school board and superintendent are fully aware of our needs and meet them as completely as the budget will allow?

That we have a curriculum in keeping with modern trends?

That the building has been refinished recently and is kept in beautiful order by our janitor, I. M. Steen?

That we have a large inside gymnasium?

That we are generously equipped with electric phonographs and have radios in all class rooms but one?

That we have received many new books this year through gifts from the Parent-Teachers Association, the American Association of University Women and our library budget?

That we have a fine collection of religious books?

That we stress religious and moral living?

That we are loyal, patriotic citizens of the United States of America?

That we practice patriotism instead of giving mere lip-service?

That each school activity and organization is based on democratic practices?

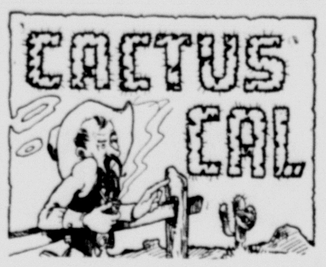
That we have 11 Junior Red Cross Clubs actively engaged in knitting, weaving and crocheting afghans and producing various articles for the comfort of our men in the army, navy and veteran hospitals and for needy children?

That all our teachers contribute generously to each Red Cross call and buy as many stamps and bonds as they can afford?

That each teacher has signed a Civilian Defense Volunteer Card and is now being trained for defense activities?

That our school bank has sold $398.05 worth of Defense Stamps and that our children have $731.25 wortah of bonds?

That if you desire to be well-informed about your school, you should read this and every other issue of The Eagle's Tale?



After scouting around in the grade school last week, Cal found that grade school students are just as active as those in high school. For instance, Kenneth Beck seems to enjoy his women in two's, for he was seen escorting the Dickerson twins, Fay and Sue, in a very manly fashion to the grade school gymnasium to take a few spins on the floor. Although Kenneth can not tell them apart, he says that both of them are very nice girls.

Probably one of the most blooming friendships is that of Ed Harrell and his cousin, Dorothy Ann Sparks.

Richard Walters seems to need a few lessons on the human body because he fell down the stairs the other day, exclaiming to an instructor standing near by that he nearly broke his heart!

Some good friends seen together often in the grade school are Donna Erwin and Bruce Winn, and Mary Ann Baker and Howard Turley.

Talking about monopolies, Walton Byrd confessed, "I have seven (meaning girl friends) but I don't want any one to know their names because the girls would be at each other's throats all the time."

Terry Mayben has his own ideas about the moon, stars, soft music and Billy Jo Ponder, commonly known as "Jody."

That's all I found, but take it from me, some of the kids in the grade school really could teach those high school students a few things.

Jenning's Fourth Grade Adds Body Minerals for Defense

Pupils in Mrs. James Jennings' room are defense-minded these days. After having a health lesson about minerals, the children donate their minerals to Uncle Sam for national defense. They found, after taking a census, that each pupil was worth only 97 cents. This would amount to $23.28.

In the second grade, along with first grade favorites, Little White House on the Hill entertains many boys and girls.

Luncheon Honors Six Grade Pupils

Surprising the six-B section with a formal luncheon, Mrs. O. Inman, roommother, and H. W. Truitt, sponsor, entertained the pupils Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Stressing the Valentine motif, Mrs. Inman had decorated the room with red and white hearts placed against the contrasting red and white.

The Valentine menu consisted of fruit cocktail, valentine sandwiches, cup cakes and fruit salad, and olives, potato chips and pickles. The center pieces were artificial dahlias and candles set in crystal holders.

Besides receiving small candles placed in candied hearts as favors, each pupil wore a valentine hat to carry out the theme and spirit of the party.

"The joyous party came to a sad ending by our losing Kenneth Beck, a popular and lovable student, who is moving soon," admitted Mr. Truitt.

St. Valentine Theme Presides During Second Grade Party

"Be my Valentine" tradition again was carried out in Mrs. Roscoe Davis' second grade when they had their party Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

For the program, any pupil who found a valentine poem or short story in his library reading was allowed to read it at the party.

Nelda Ruthardt, Virginia Rigsby and Dwain Currie read poems; and Billy Moreland, Louise Walker and Annette Rusk read stories. After all the boys and girls finished, Mrs. Davis read "The Legend of Saint Valentine."

Jean Fowler, Hila Fae Begert, Lillian Walker and Houstene Prichard helped serve chocolate and jelly bean hearts, valentine suckers, red hots and cup cakes to the members of the class.

Climaxing the afternoon, the valentine box was opened and Lowell Hill, Louis Luna, Bobbie Ray Hardaway and Billy Wayne Bonds helped distribute the valentines.

Collin's First Graders Make National Defense Puzzles

Acting as chairman of the Junior Red Cross organized by Mrs. T. W. Collins' first graders is Elaine Cundiff. This club is divided into different groups such as the weavers, the crossword puzzle scrapbookers, the knitters and the yarn donaters.

Working as weavers with Mary Margaret Dodson, chairman, are Alice Gresham, Marieta Jane Sanders, Dorothy Ann Sparks, Elaine Cundiff, Leroy Dickerson and Coy Black.

Leroy Dickerson, crossword puzzle-scrapper chairman, has as helpers Ed Harrell, Carletta Phelps, Dorothy Ann Sparks, Margie Fewell and Donald Ray Woolsey. Norman Hicks, with the help of Mrs. Collins' is the only knitter.

Those who donate to buy yarn are Jimmie Brooks, Lynndell Dawson, Buster Fowler, Ed Harrell, Norman Hicks, Clay Lindsey, Leroy Murphy, Billy Roberts, Lola Reynoza, Elaine Cundiff, Dorothy Davis, Lura Nell Prichard, Marieta Jane Sanders, John Miller and Jane Shelnutt. John Miller serves as banker for the group.

Walsh's Fifth Grade Presents Program at Monthly Meeting

Holding a regular meeting each Monday, Uncle Sam's Club for the fifth grade class meets to knit and make projects for the Red Cross. Once a month at the club meetings, a patriotic program is presented by members of the club.

Last month the program was a playlet, "Investing for Uncle Sam," presented by fifth graders.

Leaders of this club are President Jimmie Lindsey, Vice-President Sue Dickerson, Secretary Fay Dickerson and Treasurer Don Hickman.

Mrs. Andy Walsh, sponsor of the fifth grade, supervises the knitting and projects. "The children selected the name for the club and are doing wonderful work," said Mrs. Walsh.

Sixth Grade Reads Lincoln's Address

The sixth grade, A and B sections, has just completed an intensive study of the "Gettysburg Address."

Comparing the world's condition with the conditions at the time Franklin D. Roosevelt accepted office, the children decided conditions to be very similar. Then the comparison of the lives, handicaps and homes of Lincoln and Roosevelt made a discussion for a study unit.

Different pupils read material on particular subjects that could be stressed in the unit of work.

Voting on a certain person from each section of the sixth grade, the classes selected Joan Morton to read the "Gettysburg Address" to the 6-A section and Katherine Hancock to read it to the 6-B section.

"This was one of the most interesting units we have studied, and the children appeared to enjoy it immensely," said Mrs. Andy Walsh, teacher.

John B. Lyons Breaks Knitting Record as Class Places First

Being the first class to complete the 96 woven blocks required for an afghan shows that Mrs. L. M. Cousins' room is working full time for the Junior Red Cross. John B. Lyons has broken the record of all Canyon grade pupils by weaving 25 of the 96.

Adding to that, the pupils have knitted 60 blocks and cut and sewed nine hot water bottle covers.

Fourth Grade Varies Regular Valentine Party Procedures

Instead of having a valentine box, the children in Mrs. James Jennings' room exchanged valentines by slipping them in each other's books and desks.

Friday afternoon the children had a skating party in the grade school gymnasium.

Mrs. Jennings served refreshments of popcorn and valentine candy.

Going in for "tougher game," fourth grade boys line up for a game of football. Imitating animals is one of the many games played by the girls.

Do your shopping in Canyon.

Third Grade Chooses Lair Chairman of Association

With Mrs. L. T. Barksdale as acting chairman, the third grade pupils elected Stanley Lair as president and Joyce Darlene Webster as secretary of Uncle Sam's Helpers.

The club pledge is "The Pledge of Allegiance"; song, "The Star Spangled Banner"; colors, red, white and blue; and emblem, the United States flag.

Uncle Sam's Helpers plan to meet the second and fourth Friday of each month. At each meeting, the club will vote on its three best citizens; and stars will be placed after these citizens' names on the club membership chart.

Relay races seem to be the King of sports in the grade school. Although there are many other games, more pupils participate in the races than any other game.

First grade lassies spend their recreational periods playing house, jacks and Red Rover; while the lads form in groups to play marbles, black-man and football.

First and Intermediate Grades Make Progress in Better Citizenship

Good citizenship is being stressed in the grade school as projects are being featured along with regular class work.

The first grade under Mrs. M. S. Bishir has endeavored to furnish clothes for two Mexican children and a woman in need of a layette. They have brought many good but outgrown clothes from home for the boy and girl, such as dresses, slips, nighties and other small things that were used when they were babies.

Intermediate students have knitted and crocheted many red cross squares, read first aid material, weaved blocks, pieced a quilt and done other constructive Red Cross work.

Children in the first grade picture are Ara Beth Prichard, Elaine Cundiff, Lyndell Dawson, Raymond Hinders, Betty Jane Morris, Jimilie Jennings, Mary Lou Ely and Harold Root.

Those representing the intermediate grades are Howard Turley, John B. Lyons, Kenneth Beck, Bobbye Sue Foster, Sue Dickson, Stanley Lair, Tommie Hunter and Ruth Lill.

Former Buffalo Athlete Chosen

Coach Gus Miller Will Assist Van Meter—All Oldtime Exes Like Him

Gus Miller, former student in West Texas State College, was named assistant football coach, freshman basketball coach and instructor of physical education here Thursday night following the Texas Tech basketball game. Miller, now the Texas Wesleyan head coach, will act as assistant grid mentor to head coach Leslie Van Meter.

Miller will move to the West Texas State campus April 1 in time for the start of spring football practice, which extends from April 15 to May 15. The new coach received his bachelors degree here in 1924, and his M. A. at Texas Tech in 1937.

Miller had his local athletic career in 1918 to 1920 when he gained a prominent reputation for his prowess on the gridiron and baseball diamond. He coached four years at Slaton and then spent 10 years as head of athletics at Trinidad, Colo. High School.

During the last five years, he has been head coach at Texas Wesleyan College, Ft. Worth, where his football teams have won three-fourths of all games played. His basketball teams put together the startling record of 36 conference victories and lost only 18 games in 120 starts.

Miller, who has a large following of old-time West Texas fans, is 41 years old, and is married. He has a son 9 years old, and a daughter 13 years old.

The appointment of Miller completes the re-building of the Buffalo athletic staff following the resignation of Coach Jack Curtice. Curtice is athletic director at Texas Mines in El Paso.

While playing football here, Miller was known as a hard-hitting, wiry halfback and a scrapper. His teams have exemplified this spirit. Playing halfback beside him at the time was L. L. Sone, now superintendent at Pampa. Everett Key was fullback and Bugs Battenfield the quarterback.

Old Man Texas has sharpened his pencil. There's a job to be done.

Uncle Sam has a war to win and it will be paid for by you and me.

Our big job is to meet rapidly increasing federal taxes and buy defense bonds. And added to these are the costs of our local and State governments, including bond issues. The money to pay for them must all come out of the same pocket.

To make the bill fit our pocket, we're going to have to cut out some of the things we can do without. Among these are new bond issues, new State and local taxes and nonessential spending in every branch of government.

Old Man Texas is looking to taxing officials all over the State to be on the alert to effect economies.

Every local tax dollar saved for Texas taxpayers is another dollar available for victory.

seating capacity. Some of the unfortunate fans had driven more than a hundred miles to see the famed Buffs in action.

This game was the most thrilling of the year. The Buffs won 63 to 49. During the first half the lead changed several time, and Tech led 26-23 at the half.

When the second half opened, the Buffs soon took the lead and the margin was steadily increased. After five minutes of play in the second period it was evident that the Buffs were in full command of the game.

Hardin-Simmons University of Abilene returned to Burton Gym Saturday night. The Cowboys were handed a tremendous walloping by the score of 108 to 45. The Buffs were in control of the game at every stage and Coach Al Baggett used every man on the squad.

The 10th Border Conference victory was chalked up Tuesday night by the Buffs against Arizona State of Flagstaff by a score of 93 to 42. The Buffs took charge of the game from the very start and at no time did the visitors threaten the Tall Boys.

During the rest period, 10 students took the oath in joining the navy. Captain Frank Stockman, Douglas Groom and Olin Reed, members of the Buffalo basketball squad, joined the navy. Others taking the oath were Co-Captain Cletus Kuehler of last year's football team, William Flowers, Andrew Anderson, George Cullender, Marshall Baxter, Hillery Aven and J. W. Foust. All these boys were placed in V-7 class and will be allowed to compete the college year.

After the games here tonight and Friday the Buffs leave for a trip to meet the New Mexico University on Monday; New Mexico A. & M., Tuesday; Texas College of Mines, Wednesday; the schedule ends at Lubbock with Texas Tech on March 2.

College Host To Business Group Saturday

More than 50 businessmen, teachers, and students were guests of the College Department of Business Administration Saturday when the West Texas Division of the National Education Association, Department of Business Administration gathered here for an all-day meeting.

The local organization was started last year with Dr. J. O. Ellsworth of Texas Technological College in Lubbock as president; Miss Virginia King of Spearman, vice-president; and Mrs. Mabel Sides of Lubbock, secretary-treasurer. Two people credited with early work in organization, according to Dr. Lee Johnson, who served as toastmaster at the evening banquet, were Mrs. Agatha Shaw of Amarillo Junior College and Miss Icie Johnson of Amarillo High School.

At the regular college assembly hour Saturday morning, R. L. Rahbar, sales correspondent and supervisor for the Southwestern Publishing Co. of Cincinnatti, spoke to the assembled group on "Bringing the Office into the Class Room" and "Getting Results in Teaching Bookkeeping."

Mr. Rahbar spoke in the afternoon to high school business teachers and college students.

At the evening banquet in Cousins Hall, L. W. Land of the B. & O. Railroad spoke on "The Railroads and National Defense," explaining how the railroads had profited by their experiences in the last war and would now be able to care for its transportation problems.

Now, through thirteen regional advisory boards, the railroads have learned to predict the number of cars to be loaded in all areas and virtually to name the commodities, he reported. Statistically, the error in these predictions is less than one per cent.
